Freshman Day

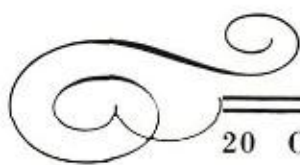

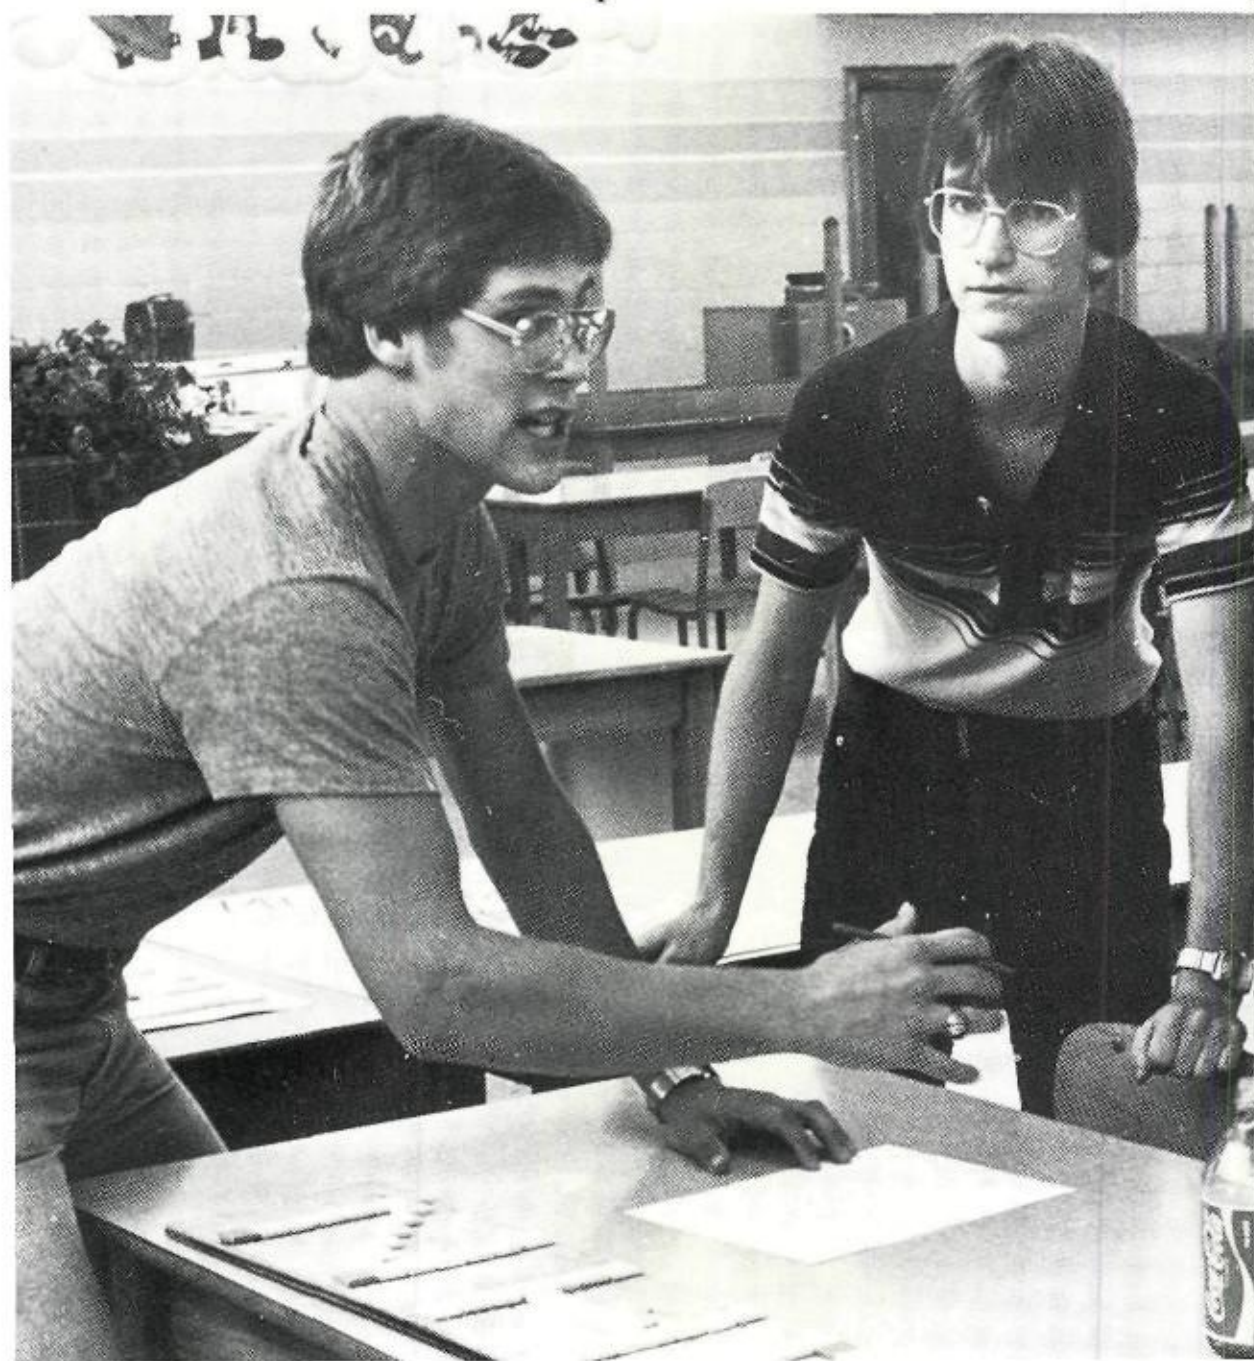

On August 21, 1981 Bryan Adams held an orientation day for freshmen. This day was devoted for the new students to learn about the school and the variety of organizations that are offered at Bryan Adams.

They were introduced to the principal D. D. Richardson and to the Student Council Officers. The students were entertained by the Bryan Adams Varsity Cheerleaders, Band and Belles.

Hectic Schedules

August 24, 1981 was the beginning of the new school year. New faces were seen throughout the school wandering about trying to find their way through the winding halls of Bryan Adams. The first day was a hectic day with new schedules and new changes. Most of the morning was spent in homeroom filling out information records. The Belles began their day at 7:00 in the girls gym in order to prepare for their part of the halftime show. Many times, the cheerleaders and spirits could be found at school perfecting their cheers and preparing for pep rallies. Many other students made their way to school in order to attend 00 classes at 7:25. For those students with nothing to do in the morning, the lunchroom offered the opportunity to catch up on homework, eat breakfast, or just socialize with friends.

Both denim and plaid colored skirts were favorite choices for girls along with famous label slacks and jeans. The loose and floppy collars were replaced by short, button down collars. The hard work paid off at the NCA Cheerleading Camp at SMU, August 7-11. The squad earned 6 blue ribbons, won the spirit stick, received a super squad ribbon, and was chosen for the Award of Excellence as one of the top five squads at camp.

They also had money raising projects to buy the new cougar mascot uniform.

Allied Youth Talks!

The Allied Youth club has a big job on their hands. At the first of each school year the students selected to be on the Allied Youth club load up in cars and attend a day long training session.

The job the club has is going to visit local elementary and junior high schools to speak on alcohol, tobacco, and drugs. They inform the younger students of the facts that are known about the three things. It has been proven that these visits by high school students are very beneficial.

To be a member of the Allied Youth club one must first be recommended by a teacher then go through a screening session.

Fund raising, bimonthly meeting and trips to schools are all a part of being in the Allied Youth Club.

The number of individuals in Allied Youth has grown over several years. This year's dedicated officers are Carol Bennett, President; Xavier Marquez, Vice President; Kim Johnson, Treasurer; Karen Patrick, Secretary; and in her third year as Allied Youth sponsor, Ms. Sanchez.

Red Cross Cares!

One of the oldest clubs that has been at Bryan Adams from the beginning is the Red Cross Club.

The club takes on an annual project each year. Money is collected from the student body one week of the school year and is given toward this project. In the past years Bryan Adams made Christmas stockings for the V.A. Hospital but times have changed and now they purchase a gift that will be more helpful to the patients. Appliances and furniture have been purchased before. The support of the student body is what makes the Red Cross Club such a success.

A couple of weeks before Christmas a trip is made to the V.A. Hospital. The club carries punch, cookies, and sings carols, and presents the new gift as their way of saying Merry Christmas — the Bryan Adams Red Cross Club cares!

What Does R.G. Mean to You???

To Bryan Adams R.G. means senior guys with Alot of school spirit! Reflecting back on the fall athletic season one group stands out in our minds — R.G.'s.

Each year the senior guys get together and make-up their own spirit organization. The name of the club always consist of two initials. The real meaning of these two initials remains a secret to everyone except to the loyal members.

This group has a reputation for being excited, spirited and rowdy. This year was no exception!

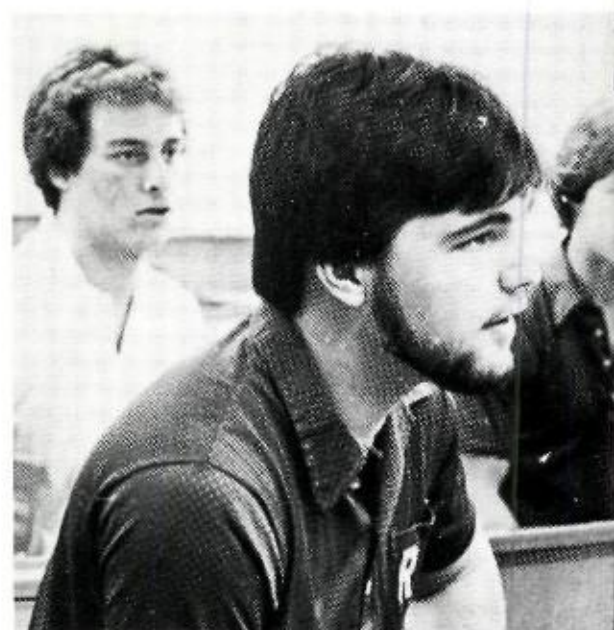

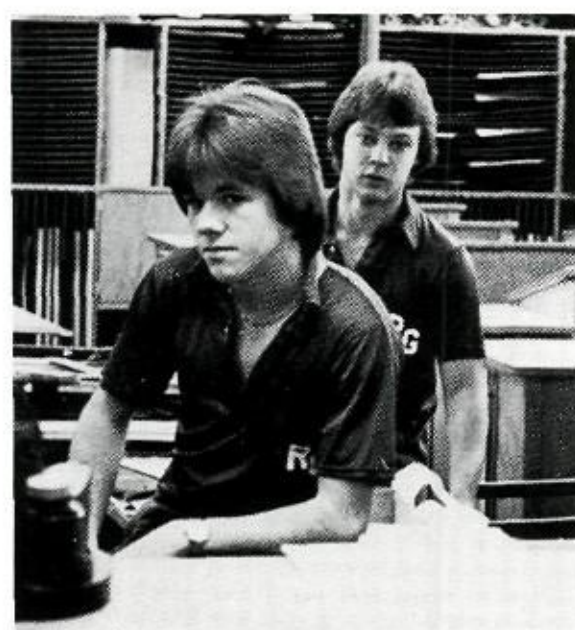

One of the big symbols of the R.G.'s was a 1959 Crown Royal purchased by some of the members for 50.00. Driving in the car was one of the privledges of being an R.G. The car was decorated by the club to give it a personalized look. The car was painted white with green writing to display their school spirit.

This years officers were Richard Morris; President and John Stokes; as Vice President. This years elected queen was Karen Wendt.

The only requirements to be an R.G. was to be a senior and to be able to think of a nickname to put on the back of your green shirt.

Congratulations! R.G.'s for a successful year!! We only have one question to ask you — What does R.G. mean to YOU???

F-Stops Here

Each year a group of slightly insane gentlemen sneak around Bryan Adams in the effort of trying to capture B.A. students in the act of being themselves. SPORTS

Varsity Hangs In

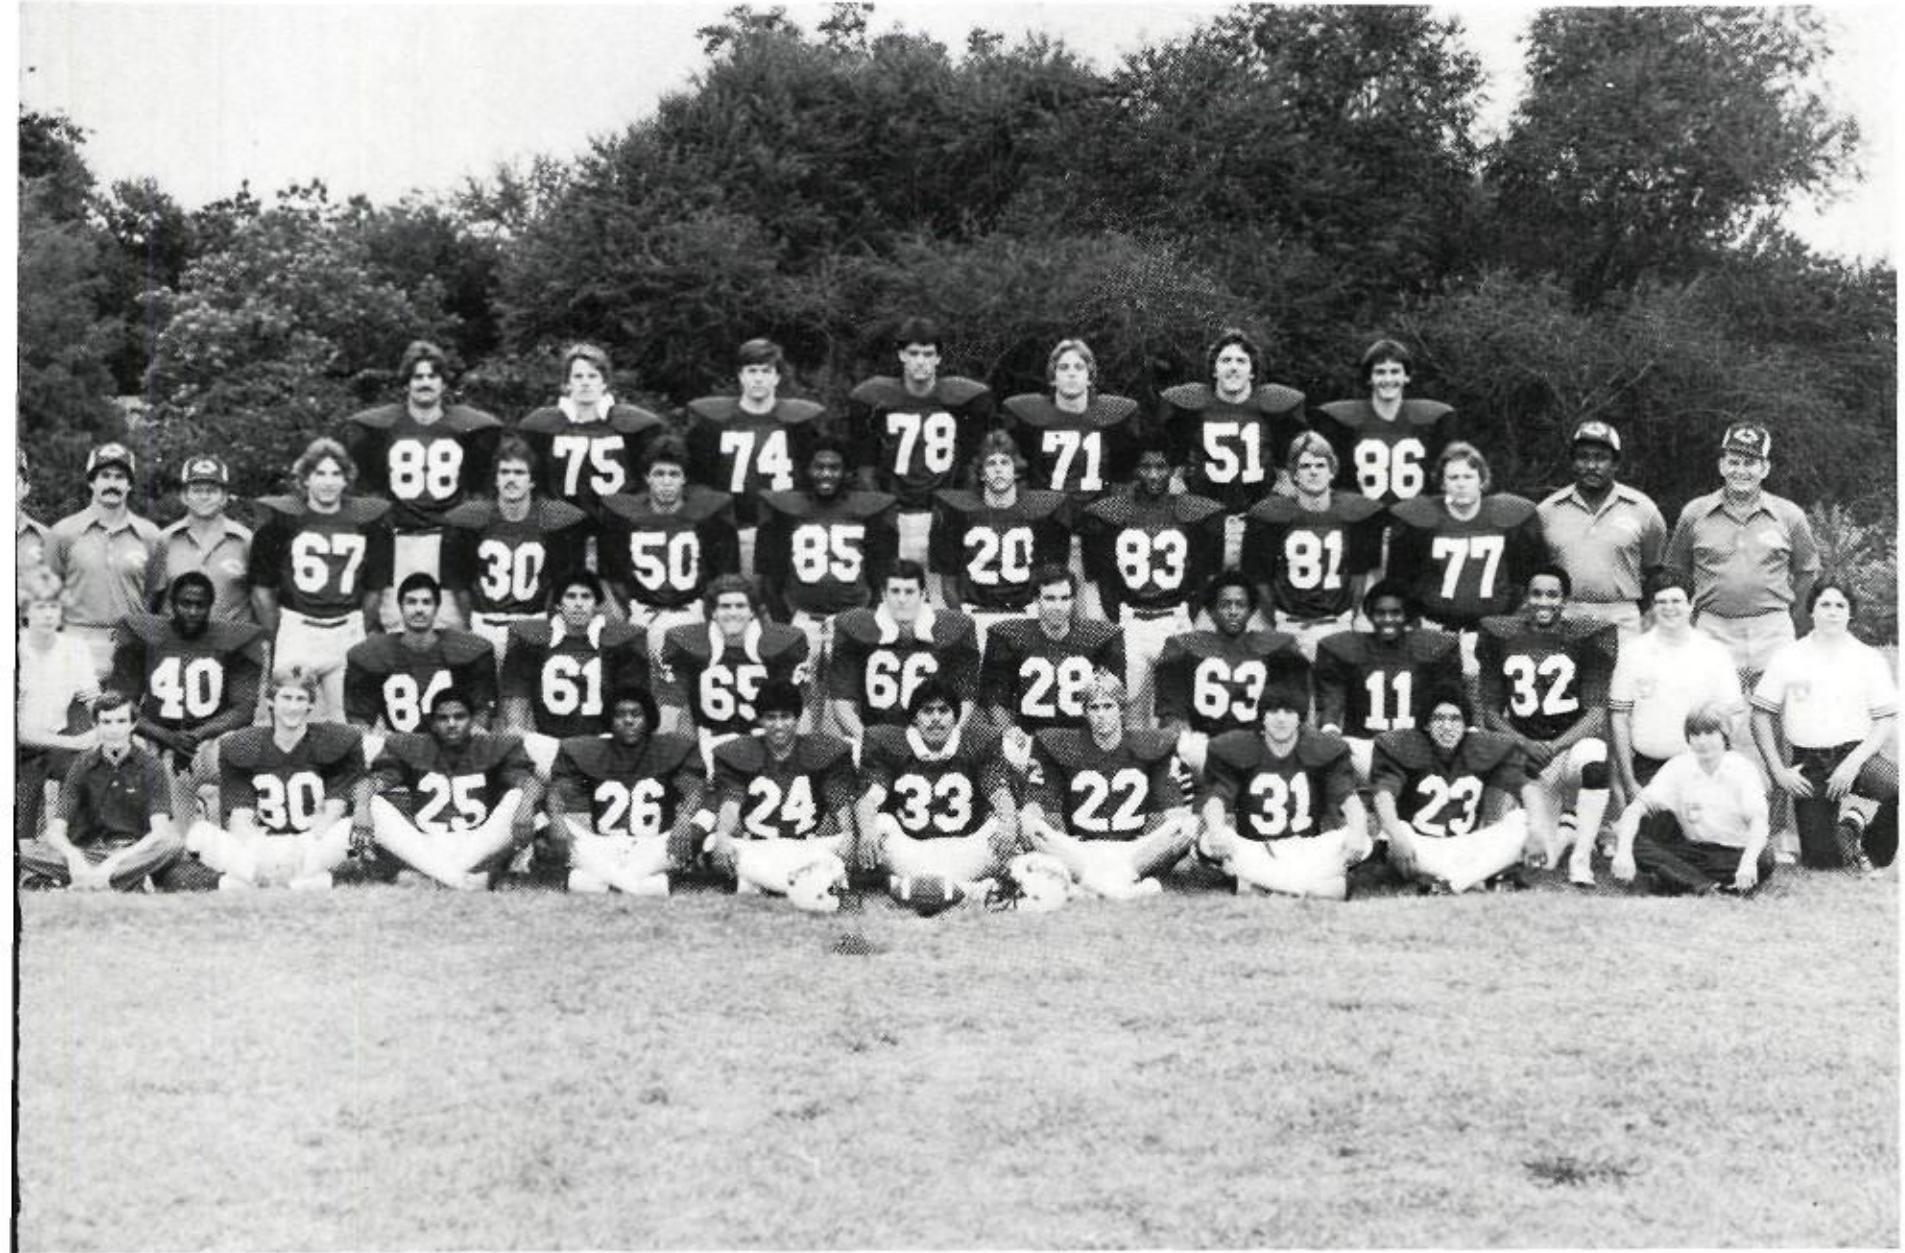

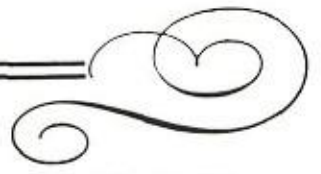

Bryan Adams Cougars ended this football season with a 2-7-1 record. A difficult season ended with a much needed and well deserved victory. The year began with the Cougars facing the toughest schedule with DISD. The first four games the Cougars were matched with state contending teams. Losses defeat stunned the Cougars frequently; however, each game showed improvement and dedication. As the team moved into distinct play results were less than promising, however, Cougars managed to defeat Woodrow Wilson and closed the season with the victory over the Samuell Spartans.

This year's team has had some real unlucky breaks though said Coach Henry Warner. There is still hope for next year as Coach Mark Giddons molds the talent and skill of the Freshmen.

Pin or Be Pinned

The 1981-82 Guys Wrestling team was mostly comprised of underclassmen and inexperienced members. This was their fifth season. This year the team got their third coach, Larry Schultz. Coach Schultz stepped right in to the gap and filled it. What he lacked in knowledge he made up for in his willingness to learn. He cared for his wrestlers and he showed it at every match. He won the hearts of his wrestlers. He worked them hard but was never unfair. This year's team was truly inexperienced. The experience was represented by senior Brent Miller with four years, and junior Richard Sauve with three years. The rest of the team only had one year or it was their first year wrestling. The captain was junior, Craig Young and Co-Captain was senior Brent Miller. Bryan Adams placed third in their district and fifth in their region. The Cougars sent one person to state competition this year, junior, Craig Young. He was the first in two years from Bryan Adams to reach the state level. The team hopes to use the skills they have learned this year to come back next year with a super team.

TO: THE BRYAN ADAMS FAMILY

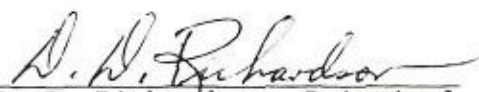

Although the Bryan Adams' Alma Mater is heard primarily at school activities, the words are most appropriate to the growth and development of our school in all areas. As we celebrate our twenty-fifth anniversary, these words have even more meaning. "On our city's eastern border" reminds us of the strength, the guidance and the support that this community gives to the school. Not only do the parents consistently send to Bryan Adams students who reflect the effective guidance that they receive in their homes, but also these parents have always offered their full support to the faculty and the administration.

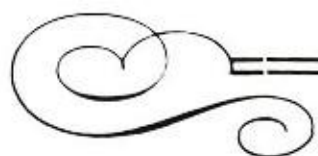

Thus, the community "On our city's eastern border" remains a vital part of the several factors that allow us to say that "Proudly stands our Alma Mater/ as the years go by." Those who have been a part of the growth and development of this high school and all who work with it, today view the accomplishments with immense pride. Through the years and at the present time, the primary purpose of our school has always related to our philosophy. The principles which serve as a guide in fulfilling our responsibility include being dedicated primarily to educating each student to his fullest potential and to enabling each to attain specific instructional goals in the basic areas of learning experience in extra-curriculum and academic areas. Through these experiences each student will be able to function effectively in our society.

Through the last twenty-five years, an evaluation of the achievement of the students on state and national scores, advance placement tests, in college, and in the world of work reveals how effectively our students have taken their place in society. We point with pride to the countless students who have achieved success in the home, in the every day business world, in the arts, in sports, and in other professionals - teachers, business executives, newspaper people, nurses, doctors, judges, lawyers. The optimistic atmosphere and positive attitudes of all have promoted a good school spirit and a responsibility to self and to society.

Because of the tremendous support of the community, the desire of the students to achieve, and the excellence of our faculty, we can say with confidence that Bryan Adams will continue to go "Forward ever - -/ Conquer and prevail." We treasure the complimentary letters of our patrons and students of the Bryan Adams family. We are deeply appreciative and thankful that through the years of unrest, criticism, upheaval and changing roles and goals in the field of education our school has been able to meet the needs of the students by keeping abreast of the beneficial changes in educational outlook.

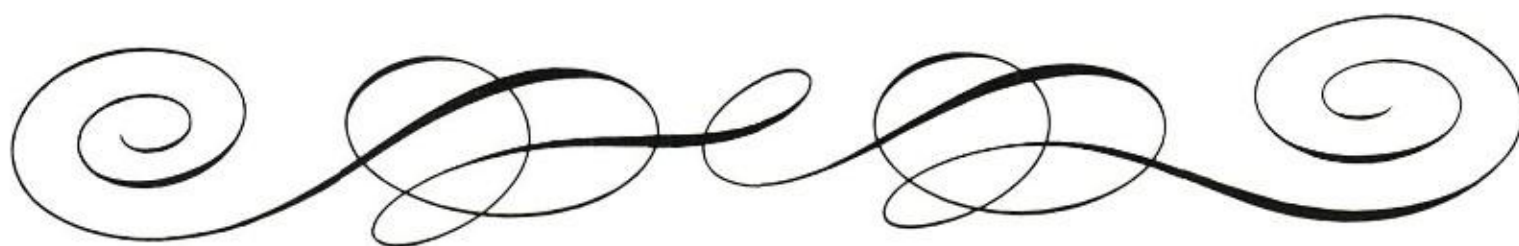

We find beauty in our traditions and use them; we retain our past with pride, but we are willing to accept the responsibilities of the future. As we go "forward," we feel assured that we will "conquer and prevail" and will continue to say, "Hail to thee, our Alma Mater/ Bryan Adams, Hail!"

D. D. Richardson, Principal
BRYAN ADAMS HIGH SCHOOL

Silver Anniversary Faculty

When Bryan Adams opened in September 1957, the new school was filled with eager men and women. These people represented the faculty who led the students to knowledge and outstanding goals. Of the original faculty, four women have been with the school throughout the entire twenty-five years. These teachers have served in very different roles which characterize their ability. One works in an office and counsels a portion of the student body, one works in a gym and promotes physical activities, one is quiet and stresses the importance of study and the last, but not least, encourages the advancement of knowledge. We of the EL CONQUISTADOR staff take this opportunity to salute their participation in our history.

Miss Carmichael

Sarah Carmichael was born in Bonham, Texas where she attended Bonham High School. Upon graduation, Miss Carmichael enrolled in Austin College in Sherman and later attended SMU where she achieved a graduate degree. In the years before she arrived at B.A., Miss Carmichael taught Physical Education and Science in various schools including her Alma Mater, Bonham High School and then in Dallas, at North Dallas H.S. In 1957, Sarah Carmichael became the Dean of Students at the newly constructed Bryan Adams High School. She has served on the staff from the beginning and has contributed greatly to growing tradition of Bryan Adams High School.

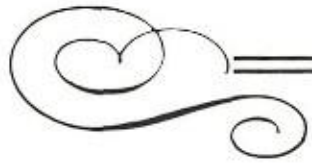

Ms. Sparks

Nina Belle Sparks was born in Paris, Texas in Lamar County. She achieved a Master's of Science degree from East Texas State University in Commerce. She taught Physical Education at William Lipscomb Elementary and then at North Dallas High School. Ms. Sparks was chosen to create a drill team for B.A. in 1957. This drill team has achieved numerous praises and, in association with the band, has toured many cities and won many awards. The success of the drill team came from its sponsor and creator who started a lasting tradition known as the Bryan Adams Belles.

Mrs. Weaver

Justine Weaver was born in Batesville, Arkansas and attended Batesville High. After high school, Mrs. Weaver moved on to Arkansas College and Henderson State Teachers College. She then moved to Dallas where she has been teaching for 26 years. Before her arrival at Bryan Adams, Mrs. Weaver taught at Woodrow Wilson. Mrs. Weaver came to Bryan Adams when it first opened and has seen it grow into a strong academic establishment.

Mrs. Worsham

Leita Worsham was born in Saltillo, Texas where she graduated from Saltillo H.S. She then attended Southern Methodist University and East Texas State University where she received a Master's of Science degree. Before her arrival at B.A., Mrs. Worsham taught at Saltillo H.S., W. W. Bashman Elementary and Conner Elementary. She has taught various subjects such as Music, Business, and Language Arts. During her years at B.A., Mrs. Worsham has served as a Department Chairman and has taught both High Academic and Advanced Placement Classes. Through her dedication as a teacher, Mrs. Worsham has directed as well as inspired many B.A. students that have passed through her room.

EL CONQUISTADOR:

AN UNBROKEN TRADITION

When Bryan Adams first opened its doors twenty-five years ago, an era of traditions began. The new students formed a staff and decided to produce a book that recorded these new traditions. The original staff members wanted to give their book a name that reflected the community surrounding the school. They chose a Spanish name that kept the theme of the Casa Linda, Casa View areas. The name itself, EL CONQUISTADOR, symbolized "an heroic breed of Supermen unique in the annals of world history who overcame astronomical odds and conquered a bright new world." Throughout the past twenty-five years, the members of the EL CONQUISTADOR staff have strived to keep this tradition a vital and growing asset in the history of Bryan Adams High School!

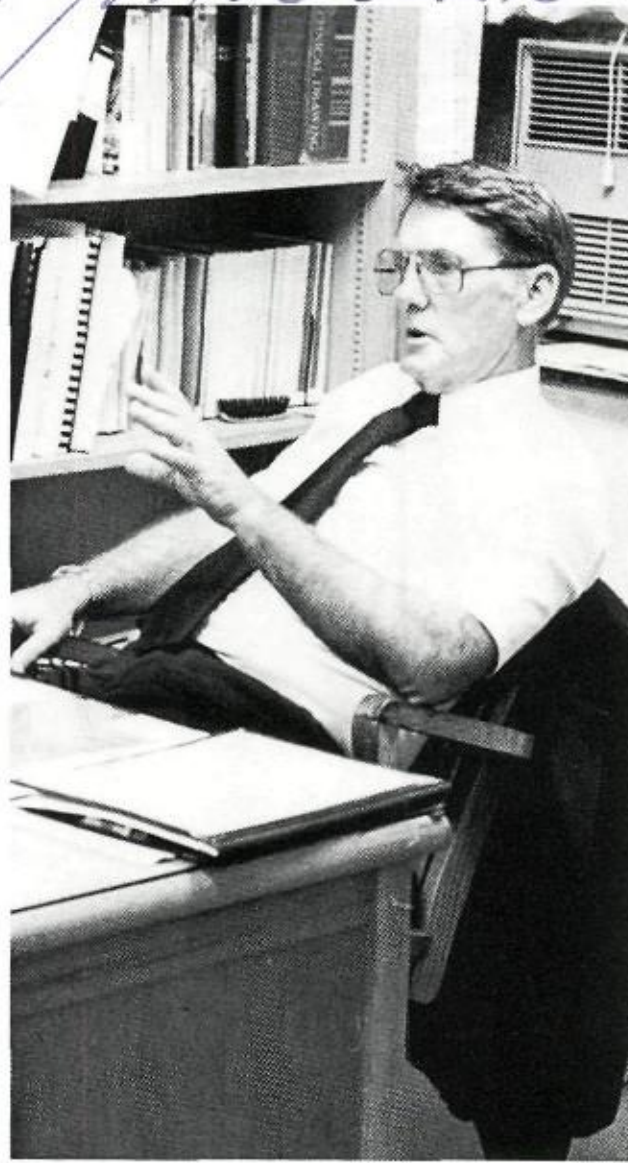

Adminis- tration Surges Forward

Under the direction of D. D. Richardson, the Bryan Adams Administration completed another successful year. They concentrated on enforcing the rules broken during school such as tardies, leaving school early, truency, and have assisted Mr. Richardson with various school activities.

Our Fair Ladies

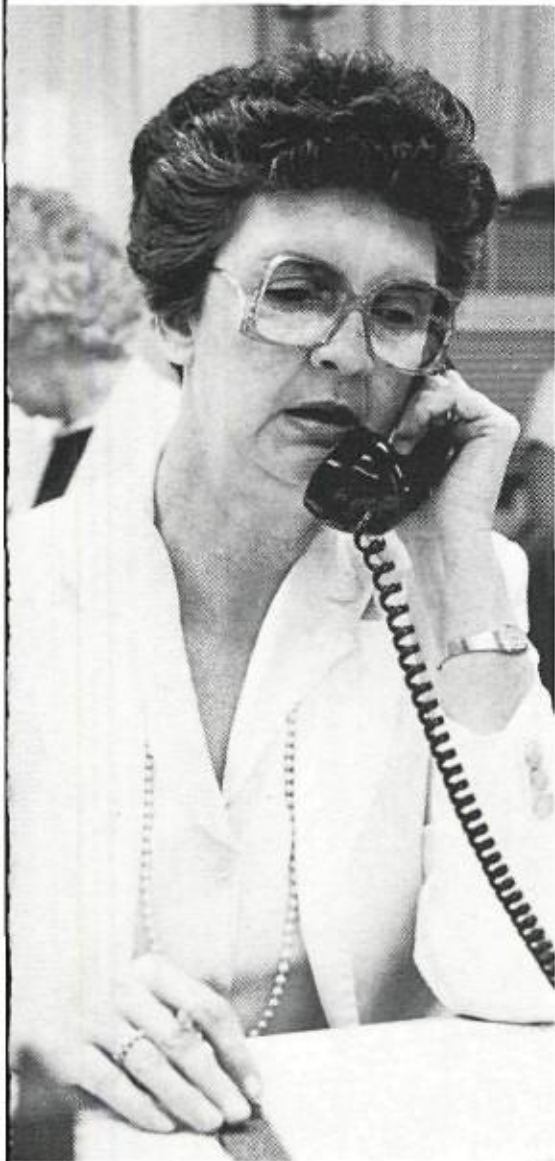

The Attendance Office ladies were always seen busy at work maintaining the student attendance records. They tackled the great responsibilities of keeping accurate records of each student's absences and tardies and keeping the parents informed of any unsatisfactory behavior. They also had the job of relaying messages to students from their parents and making sure that each student was allowed to leave school in time for an appointment.

Mary Brinlee was in charge of the freshmen while Anita Parker took charge of the sophomores. The juniors reported to Mildred Morgan, and Faye Van had the job of keeping the seniors in line. Joyce Watson helped in keeping the records organized to make the Attendance office run smoothly throughout the year.

Down the front hall and turn to the right. How many times did you give those directions to aimlessly wandering students on the first day of school? Yes, the Lunchroom, center of lively conversation, controversial music, edible food, and Lunchroom Ladies. Sometimes these happy bustling little ladies scurrying around to hand out french fries and hamburgers or to take your money for that highly nutritious, no real fruit juices added, Hi-C, are quite a welcome sight in the routine lunch half-hour.

The whole atmosphere of the Bryan Adams lunchroom is one of participation and pride, for it is the center of the famous mural as well as the student bookstore. The Bryan Adams Lunchroom Ladies were also in step with the atmosphere they worked in. Every football game, without fail, our hamburger helpers were decked in green and white. These devoted women also served dutifully with several fundraising dinners. The El C Staff takes this time to salute and thank these women.

Under the direction of Mr. Charles King, these men and women worked with and for the students. These brave Cougars suffered through the cold and heat to collect the daily fifteen cents from each student. They also worked in the lunchroom assisting the Cafeteria Staff. This year's staff consisted of Charles King, Walter Williams, Earl Armstead, Almeda Jackson, Lee Jackson, Wilkie Walker, Mr. Feemster, Charles Davis, Arthur Meadow, Clifford Rains, Steve Orenbaum and Jack Kelley.

English on All Levels

Under the direction of Leita Worsham, the English Department strived to teach students new insights in written and spoken expression. Each day for students from Freshman to Senior, Language Arts was a part of their daily class schedule. The English Department offered a wide variety of subjects for intense study. The teachers taught the "Basics" of Grammar, and led discussions in the analyzation of novels and poetry. One not so popular aspect of the English course was the assignment of the yearly research paper. For those academically oriented students who wished to further enhance their skills, courses such as Speedreading, which was taught by Louis Stafford, were offered. In addition, extracurricular activities in English included the formation of the Literary Society sponsored by Peggy Leeman. The English Department was able to reach the goal of sharing to importance of our language with the student body.

Languages of B.A.

The foreign language classes added more excitement to a student's schedule than any other elective. These classes included French, Spanish, German and Latin. Not only did students learn how to read, write and conjugate verbs, but also the history and culture of the various countries. Most students attended these classes for mere enjoyment but others took these classes for college requirements or as a means of filling space in their schedule. After school, students attended different clubs sponsored by the foreign language department. The department was headed by Sue Verde. The department also welcomed two newcomers this year. The Sweat Shop

"Twenty pushups — Are you kidding?" This was one of the common gripes that the Physical Education teachers heard this year. Besides the few calisthenics that each class performed, the teachers led the students in various activities such as: tennis, volleyball, softball, slimnastics, archery, and floor hockey. Each of these activities taught the students the importance of team work.

Because it is required that students must have three semesters of gym or its equivalent such as Band, Belles, or ROTC to graduate, most students spend some part of their school day with these teachers. AWARDS

John Bennett

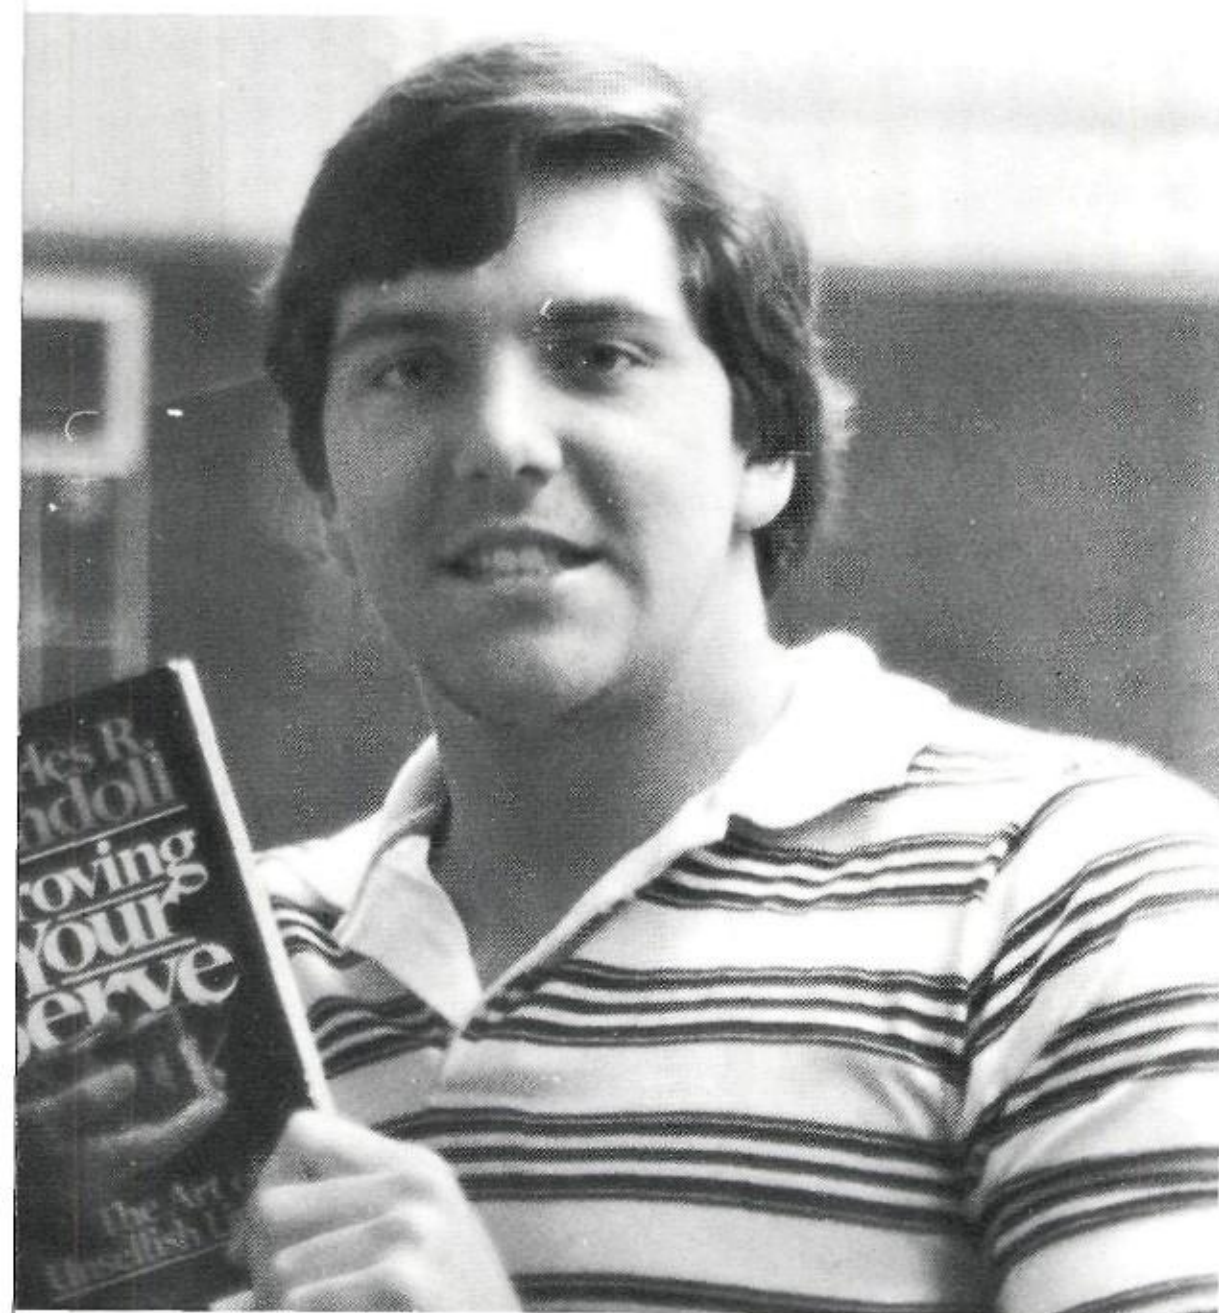

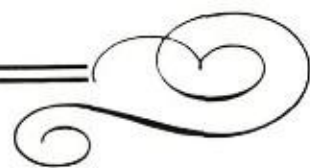

John Bennett displayed the qualities of a true leader as he participated in and headed many organizations. As a three year member of the National Honor Society John was elected President of the Society during his senior year. Winning awards in mathematics and taking accelerated math classes made it obvious to see why John held the office of Vice-President of the Math Club. He was also active in the Latin Club and took the position of secretary. During his senior year, John acted as Editor-in-Chief of the Senior Pub.

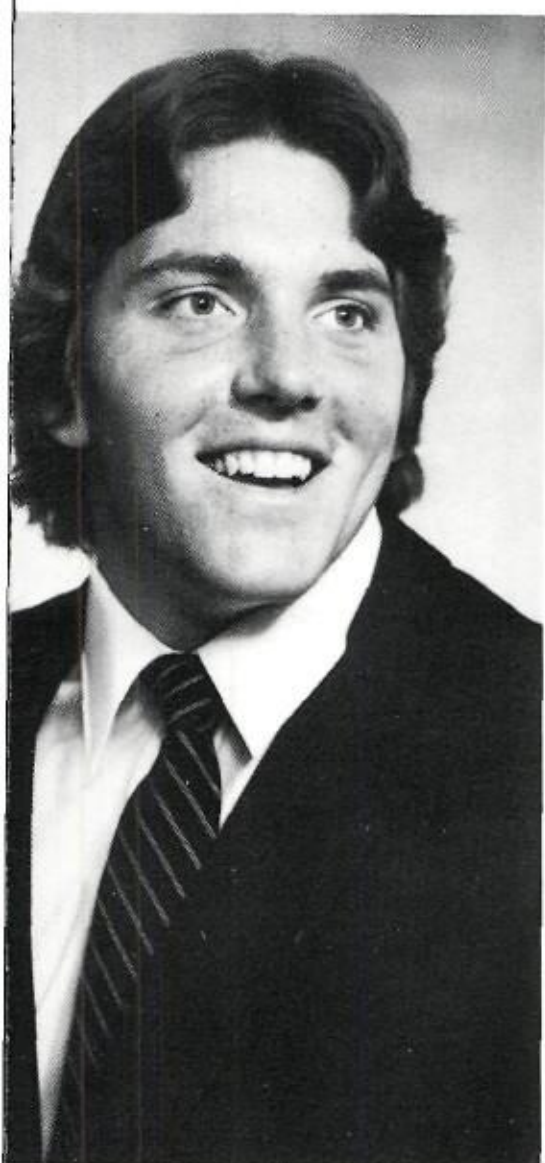

Academics was also a major concern for John during his career at Bryan Adams. John excelled in High Academic's as well as Advanced Placement Classes and was ranked first in his senior class. John also appeared on the honor roll all four years.

Being selected for the New Edition Singers also marked Marcia's vocal talent. She was well received as she sang in the N.F.L. talent show. Marcia was a member of the Spirits and a Squad Leader before becoming a two year Belle. She participated in the French Club and served as Secretary as well as attending the State Convention for two years. Seniors Come Together

Senior Council worked hard to provide a memorable year for the Seniors of 1982 with activities such as a Senior Six Flags Day. Such projects as working at the grand opening of Ace Hardware, sponsoring two dances and selling carnations for St. Patrick's Day and raised money for Senior Activities such as the Prom, Baccalaureate, and Graduation.

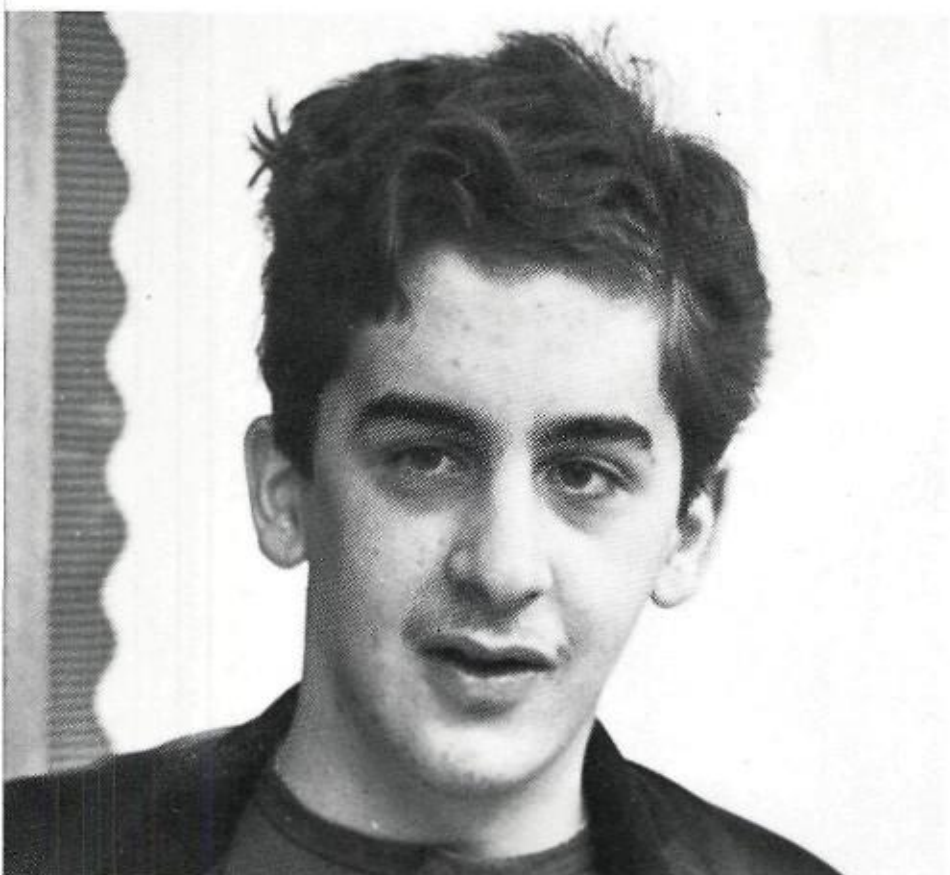

The Senior Class officers for this year were: President, Tim Weber; Vice-President, Kathy Cantu; Secretary, Sheri Deterling; and Treasurer, Penny Darnell. Separate committees were formed to work on such things as the Prom, Senior projects, Baccalaureate, Assembly, Publicity, and Invitations. Sponsors for the Senior Council are Laura Kiefer, Barbara Carrell, Grayce Clay and Jerry Clay.

Well Seniors, it's hard to believe that it's almost over. The four years we looked forward to as freshmen have passed so quickly, but the memories will last a lifetime. We began as many but we pulled together and became one. Congratulations for making Seniors '82 the best ever.

Angela,

*We've shared many moments

To the Class of '82,

Well, fellow classmate, it's come to the end and it's time to say goodbye to the carefree life. May the class of '82 be the exception to this frame of mind. Happiness lives within our hearts and in one success and all things good will reach each and everyone of you.

To the El C Staff,

"It is the best of times; it is the worst of times."

Thank you for the time, for the energy, for the support, and most of all, thank you for yourselves. I may not have been what you wanted me to be . . . but I did my best.

Be proud of your book. Be proud of yourselves.

McMini —

Well kid! What's there to say. It's our Senior years and although we didn't spend them together, I thought about you all the time. Remember when — I talked you into working at McDonalds, then I quit. But we met Boner and we got extremely talented at air guitar. No seriously — who else goes looking for Jigsaw puzzles on Thanksgiving? — I swear that I didn't steal your corner piece! Annual Staff was great and you were a super out-of-state staffer! Remember the parties? — we hit children!! Snap out of it Renee! Bob, not Janie, drove you home! Let's spend some time with the eight ball, the Rainbow kid rides again!

THE PRIDE OF THE 81-82 BELLES

From early morning practice,
To a late night football game,
The 81-82 Belles, were never put to shame.

The Houston trip, brought glory and thrills,
And the Astrodome gave us all the chills.

The rain didn't stop us, it put us to the test,
As for every misfortune, we always did our best.

The long hours and hard work, we never will regret,
Gave our year fulfillment, we never will forget.

We had some rough times, when we felt troubled and despaired,
But the best times of all, were the times in which we shared.

Our year has come and gone so fast,
Where did all of it go?
But if we could do it over again, ever
Closer we would grow.

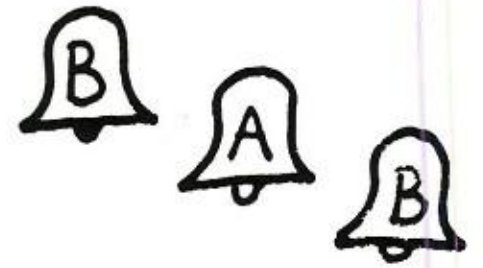

We began the year, with smiling faces,
But now there are those ready to take our places.

For those that don't know, we've gained a friend,
That will be with us, to the very end.

Her undying loyalty, was never ending,
All her time with us, she was spending.

She gained every respect, with each endeavor,
The "Spark" she gave us will glow on forever.

We hope that she'll remember, in the future and each day,
That the 81-82 Belles, love her dearly in every way!

We Love You Nina Sparks
